Join the National School Boards Association, the Thomas B. Fordham Institute, and the Iowa School Boards Foundation for the release of

SCHOOL BOARDS CIRCA 2010: GOVERNANCE IN THE ACCOUNTABILITY ERA
Findings from a National School Boards Association national survey – the first in a decade – on school board members

The release of School Boards Circa 2010: Governance In The Accountability Era provides national data on who serves on school boards, what board members think about a number of school reform initiatives, how they do their work (especially as it relates to raising student achievement), how school board elections are carried out, and the nature of the relationship between the school board and the superintendent.

Thursday, February 3, 2011 at 9 - 10 a.m. EST
The Washington Hilton, Terrace Level, Fairchild Room
1919 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC

Event Panelists:
Frederick M. Hess, Co-author of the report, American Enterprise Institute
Olivia Meeks, Co-author of the report, American Enterprise Institute
Hilary LaMonte, Knowledge Management Consultant, Iowa School Boards Foundation
Amber Winkler, Research Director, Thomas B. Fordham Institute
Anne L. Bryant, Executive Director, National School Boards Association

Event Moderator:
Earl C. Rickman III, President, National School Boards Association

RSVP Requested:
Please RSVP to attend this event to Linda Embrey, 703-838-6737 or at lembrey@nsba.org by Tuesday, February 1.

The report will be available online at www.nsba.org, after 9 a.m. EST on February 3, 2011.